“ My sincerest condolences to the Baker family and friends. I am a nephew of Jeri's. I will always remember her as a kind, loving, caring, intelligent, serious but still funny person. Some of my fondest memories of Aunt Jeri are when I would make business trips to Houston and occasionally, at her behest, request to stay at her house. She was always gracious enough to say yes. While there, even though I am somewhat of a loner, she would always go out of her way to make sure I was comfortable. She gave me my space while also making me feel a part of the family. I enjoyed talking with her and getting caught up on the various families. She always had amusing stories to tell. And, I would enjoy as well, talking business, or businesses, with Uncle Bill. Jeri was my Aunt, but also, I felt, my friend. I will miss her smile, her laugh and most of all, her spirit. A very special lady. Rest in Peace.
