“ Joe,

I was saddened to hear of Margie's death. Sorry I was not able to attend the services last Friday, but I was carting my Ft. Worth grandsons back to Cowtown. Having been a pair what seems like forever, I know you will miss her. My prayer is that each day, God will give you what you need to deal with her death. Take care my friend.

“ Marge we go way back in time - young and foolish but had so much fun - you, Joe, Al and me. Love you bunches and I guess you and Al are in Heaven having a ball. Love you bunches and will miss your smiling face and Joe will remember how you used to pull his nose and slap him on his face when you got upset with him - that was just such a loving gesture. I will try to stay in touch with Joe and help in any way I can. He will miss you always just as I miss Al always. Hugs/Toni

“ Dear Joe:

We just got an email from you and were shocked to hear of Margies passing. We just saw you both recently at another family funeral and though the purpose of the visit was sad, it was a joy to see you both again and catch up. This time the reason is again heartbreaking and we know you and Margie were such a team - like Charlie and I, both working, playing and being together through everything. That kind of partnership takes a lot of effort, dedication and love. You have both had a great marriage many search a lifetime for.

There were so many occasions in our appraisal businesses that we were able to spend time together, share and help each other and merge our IFA group with your MAI organization all working towards mutual respect, friendship and common goals. We shared many hours of learning, laughing and so many good meals together. You and Margie have been so instrumental in welcoming us when we were new to the real estate appraisal business and supporting us in our endeavors as appraisers and officers of the NAIFA for years. We have been so grateful and always have shared how you both treated us so kindly and have the deepest respect and admiration for you and also for Margie. She really gave everything she touched her all and made situations that were difficult look so easy. She was a pro and you know by her radiant smile and beautiful personality that anyone lucky enough to know her was motivated, inspired and made to feel special.

We will miss her but we are happy to have the memories knowing her and you. We have been blessed in our lives. We offer you our deepest sympathy and friendship now and in the coming years. We are always ready to lend a hand, an ear or what you need if it is ours to give..

With love, Charlie and Lisa Cotrone .

“ No one can light up a room like Margie. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her. I remember when she visit us at our Canadian home. We sat on the deck and sang at the top of our lungs to the night air. She brought out the best in everyone she knew. I know Jack and I will miss her and think of her daily, especially since she bought me a cutting board for my birthday one year and said to me "now you can remember me when ever you use the cutting board." I use it daily.

“ My heart, and soul will always remember my dearest, and beloved friend Margie. I was 16, and she, 15 when we met in Dallas. We were close as sisters, and my heart is broken from the loss of her glowing personality, and her brilliant mind. The world will be a sadder place without her. Rest in Peace beloved Margie.
