“ I always enjoyed going over to the Edick's house when I was growing up because I didn't know any other family with six kids! Something always happen at the Edicks! Mrs. Edick was always so nice to me as always when I happen to drop in with my brother Steve to see Timmy or Barry. I can still see Mr. Edick in his favorite chair watching Notre Dame Fighting Irish football. I'm glad I had a chance to sit with her and talk a couple years ago when I was in Houston, may she rest in peace God Bless the family.

“ Oh, how I remember Mrs. Edick!!! Our family moved next door to this 'Brady Brunch' in New York and I was given the task of taking care of the Edick kids on several occasions at the ripe old age of ten. I remember her love of scrabble, and how calm she seemed to be in the midst of a personal baseball and football field that was in her back yard. She was so, so, so very sweet. I am sorry for your loss, Edick Family. How lucky that you had this gem as your mother and grandmother.

“ My Aunt Mary was more like my big sister when we were growing up. She had the smile, the charm, and the boyfriends I wanted, and when she went into nursing I was hanging on to her every word and experience. I went into nursing because of her, while she went on to raise her six much-loved kids, with her sense of humor and a smile helping her through the busy days.

I sat on my steps last night and sang "Whispering Hope" to you. Mary, but only I could hear your voice. We sounded pretty good; you always did harmony so well. I know you were met at the door by your Mom and mine, your Gus and Tim, and all the beloved family that's gone before you. Peace now to your heart and soul.

Sending a prayer for you and love to your family, Barbara

“ Missing her so much. Remembering all of you being here. She was the best mother in law and I was so fortunate to also call her friend. Missing our scrabble games. Hope to see you again soon Barbara.
