Shirley was an only child and throughout her life she was devoted to caring for her mother who she dearly loved.

Shirley was a long-time member of West University Baptist Church, and her devotion to the Lord and her love of her church was a blessing to her after her mother's passing.

She loved her Senior Sunday School Class, Wednesday night prayer group, Prime Time Singers and she found joy and happiness in all her church activities.

The family wishes to thank her friends, James Hudley and Missy Colgin for their love and support and her friend, Maggie Gilmore, for her kindness and generosity.
