“ There is a candle lit in St. Peter's Chapel in NYC for Alec.

He was an amazing friend and was one of the reasons I am now almost chronic pain/ headache free. We somehow got put together for OT/PT at the Cleveland Clinic and he was the one that pushed me and told me that in time, I would get better. We also ended up singing and dancing together a lot with Madeleine and every time I hear "Fighter" by Christina Aguilera or "Cooler than Me" by Mike Posner, I think of him.

Even after Cleveland Clinic, we kept in touch and we helped each other through some of the emotional battle that comes with having chronic pain. I miss him a lot and he was a great role model and friend to me. Thank you so much for sharing him with me. :)

Love and condolences, Nicole

“ I met Alec the last few days before he graduated from HSES last year. He was in the CEC offices, and was comfortable chatting with everyone -- excited for his next chapter at Strake Jesuit. What a charming, polite, outgoing young man. He will be missed.
