

Allan Arthur Conde

January 7, 1964 - April 24, 2026

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of the beloved and respected Allan Arthur Conde, MD, 62, of Houston on Friday, April 24, 2026. Allan was born on January 7, 1964, in Vancouver, British Columbia, to Arthur and Violeta Conde. He is preceded in death by his parents and son Brock. He is survived by his wife Kim of 32 years of marriage, daughters Renee and Anabelle, and sisters Michelle and her husband Stephen and sons Joshua and Cristian and Sofia and her husband David and sons William and Daniel.

Allan grew up in Houston, Texas, and graduated high school from Strake Jesuit College Preparatory where he was known as a mischievous prankster. He received his bachelor's degree from Houston Baptist University. Throughout his high school and college years, he was a dedicated member of the Young Republicans Club. He moved to Galveston where he graduated from medical school at UTMB where he met his wife, Kim, and they had their first child, Renee. He returned to and established his family in Houston where he completed his residency in anesthesiology at Baylor College of Medicine. He had his second child Arthur Brock during residency, and his third child Anabelle soon after. He chose to raise his family in the same neighborhood he grew up in west Houston where he was well-known by all. He was an active member of his local parish St. John Vianney. Throughout all this, he worked hard and was very dedicated to his job as a perioperative medicine physician to provide for his family. He was known as a very skilled and personable doctor by all of his patients and colleagues.

Allan enjoyed lifting weights in his home gym, swimming in and cleaning his pool, taking his family on road trips, learning about and admiring cars, running his start-up business Mag Swipes with his son Brock, telling people creative fictional stories about how he was from Anahuac, and being a member of Bayou Rifles club. There was nowhere Allan went where he did not recognize someone, find a new person to introduce himself to, or strike up a conversation. He loved making people laugh. He was an active member of the Harris County Medical Society and most recently served on its Membership Committee. Allan was known to be stubborn and diligent but most importantly, he was a loving father, dedicated husband, and loyal friend.

The Conde family will be present to receive friends for Visitation and Rosary Monday May 11, 2026, with visitation at 6:00PM and Rosary at 7:00PM. Mass of Christian Burial will be the following morning Tuesday May 12, 2026, at 10:30AM at St. John Vianney Catholic Church 625 Nottingham Oaks Trail, Houston, TX 77079. Following Reception guests are invited to join in police cortege to Woodlawn cemetery 1101 Antoine Dr. Houston, TX 77055 for a 1:00PM Committal Service.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Dr. Conde for several years. I really got to know him (and his shenanigans) while providing anesthesia in the office with him. He enjoyed coming up with unbelievable stories that you just never really knew if they were true. However, we all knew he was telling a tale if ‘Anahuac’ was mentioned.

Allan never met a stranger. He had the ability to connect with patients instantly. He would ask the right questions to discover a shared interest. After a few minutes of talking, you could assume that they had been friends for decades even though they just met.

Allan was thoughtful. We all know that he had a great appreciation for food. In the office, one thing he looked forward to enjoying between cases was a very cold Diet Coke. He had an exact amount of time that he would place 2 Diet Cokes in the freezer to achieve this perfect temperature. One for him and one for me.

After each case, Allan would calculate the percentage of cases that we completed for the day. For example, he would tell me “90% of cases done” if 9 of 10 cases were complete. He liked to do the math I suppose. My friend, I feel like you left early from your shift on Earth. However, God called. You have helped thousands of people and made even more friends along the way. May you rest in 100% eternal peace.

“ We will remember Dr Allan Conde as someone who brought laughter into every room he entered. His quick wit and endless supply of jokes made even the busiest days brighter. Whether he was convincing new staff that condiments were named after the “Conde family” or warning people about a mysterious 30-cent elevator tax, Allan had a gift for delivering humor with a perfectly straight face and leaving everyone smiling long afterward. More than his jokes, Allan will be remembered for the joy, camaraderie, and lighthearted spirit he shared with colleagues every day. He will be deeply missed and fondly remembered by everyone fortunate enough to know him.

“ I was shocked and saddened to hear of the passing of my friend Allan Conde. Allan and I met in college at HBU where we were both pre-med. Our friendship lasted over 40 years. I knew his parents and his sisters, Michelle and Sofia. I have a great many memories of the times we had. Allan could be mischievous at times but he always had a big heart. He would always wear his boots when we went somewhere and he would make sure that I did the same. We shared many of the same interests which perhaps is one reason we stayed friends for so long. Allan was a true friend that I will miss greatly.

“ The news of Allan’s passing came as a profound shock. I’ve known Allan for nearly 30 years. I first met him after my anesthesiology residency—our friendship was instantaneous. Over time, our families became close as well, sharing so many moments together. We had similar interests—family, trucks, and even guns—and I could always count on talking with Allan about just about anything. He had a unique ability to make things better, no matter the situation, with a positive, never-wavering attitude. Allan seemed to navigate life’s complexities with ease and perspective, Since I am a foodie, I appreciated that he also loved good food. I’ll never forget the time he called me to meet him at Pappas Seafood House because they had an all-you-can-eat lobster special for $30. I managed ten lobsters, but Allan somehow ate twenty-two—the night was memorable with laughter and great stories. However, I couldn’t eat another lobster for years after that feast!. I’m so grateful for all the memories we shared. Allan was a true friend who will be forever missed.

Our family sends our deepest condolences to Kim, Renee, and Annabelle. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I first met Allan somewhere around 1996 or 97. I had recently completed my Otolaryngology training and Allan was the anesthesiologist staffing many of my cases at Methodist Hospital. In the years that followed we worked closely and quite regularly at various other hospitals from the early 2000s until 2014 when he began staffing office case two to three days weekly right up until last week. He was the co- captain of my ship, enabling me to administer surgical care in my office with the same level of safety as one would expect in any major hospital. Allan wasn't just good, he was stellar. Together we created a team that I thought would last for years to come. Our bonds of friendship grew closer and tighter over the years, enabling us to create many memories and share numerous family milestones. Long days of surgery would often be followed by long lunches as we would discuss our mutual interest in cars, guns (I never let on that I only understood a fraction of the details on the firearms!), my kids, his kids, and the endless stories of working at the various hospitals in years past. We spent many a Saturday morning together, whether it was at coffee, a car show and most recently the NRA convention. I'll never forget him taking my dad and me to Fulshear for the famous BBQ and a visit to his dad's old homestead. By the way, I was there for the Anahuac stories and more. The shenanigans we pulled together were priceless. He and I even convinced office staff there was a $ 20 fine for using the elevator and we'd look at each other with smiles and deep affection. I mention all these details because I have lost a best friend. I loved Allan like a brother. He was one of the kindest, funniest, intelligent individuals I have ever met. It was truly an honor and a privilege to have worked with him and moreso to have called him my friend. My ship has lost a captain that can never be replaced. I love you my dear friend and will forever miss you. May you find peace in heaven.

I look forward to seeing you. Allan and I shared the same interest in cars as you. My favorite car is the Lamborghini Espada and we went to see one in Houston in an effort to get it for me. I consulted another doctor who was interested in cars and he said that it was very hard to get parts, it came with no air conditioning and it was in need of repair of a lot of bodywork. So I didn't get it. Anil

“ I got to know Allan when I first joined NWA in 2006 and we became friends immediately. In subsequent years we became family friends and we visited each other's houses. I remember a funny story about Allan. Allan and Kim and some close friends came to my house for dinner. I said anybody who wanted some more food should go to the kitchen and help themselves. Allan had secretly gone to the kitchen and helped himself, not once but twice. There was no more food available when I suggested that the remaining guests do that. Kim was mortified and I wouldn't be in Allan's shoes on their way home! We were shocked to hear the news of Allan's passing and we would like to give Kim, Renee and Annabelle our deepest condolences. “ I met Allan in medical school. He spoke softly and kindly, but carried big, unwavering convictions. He taught me everything I know about weightlifting- he won the school bench press each year. He also taught me to spot him, which went against every understanding of gravity I had! Throughout the years, Allan never changed- he was steadfast. A dear friend, a loyal husband, a proud father, a dedicated physician. He spotted me many times in life throughout the years I've known him. He will be greatly missed. Love to his wife and family.
