“ Caroline, Rachel and Alex,
We are so sorry. Greg and I will miss our Saturday lunches and long conversations at Andrea's. We shared many stories about friends and family, Italy and, of course, our mutual passion, food and wine. He was a kind and wonderful man, and we feel lucky to have known him. He was so proud of his girls and loved you all. He will be missed.

“ *Caroline and Family,
I did not know Andrea well but when I did go to eat at Andrea's, he was so warm and personable. Caroline, of course I remember you from our time on the ACTS effort together. I wish I could be there for the rosary and Funeral, but I am leaving town tomorrow a.m. on a very important trip. I could not change my plans. I want you to know you are in my thoughts and prayers as you grieve the loss of a wonderful husband, Dad, and friend to many people. I am so very sorry for your loss.

“ Dear Caroline, Rachel and Alex,
You are in our hearts and thoughts as we grieve for your loss, and, selfishly, ours. We have known few people as vibrantly alive and joyful as your husband and father. His kindness to my Dad, "Enrico", melts my heart to this day. My Dad loved him as family, and that is indeed how we all think of him, and you. Rachel, I am so grateful to you for the kindness of calling me to tell me about your Dad, even when you were grappling with your own shock and grief. I suspect Andrea is fixing something yummy right now for my Dad and everyone else in heaven--since he never met a stranger--and still teasing Dad about not eating his vegetables. Bill and I are sending you love and strength...Lynn McCue

“ Caroline, our love and prayers are with all of you at this difficult time. Tim and I had the joyful honor of meeting Andrea after having a lovely dinner at the restaurant. What a great host and delightful man! We felt like we had known him for years. May God hold you, Alex, and Rachel ever so close to His heart.
