

Anthony Parviz Eslami

September 27, 1953 - September 25, 2012

Anthony Parviz Eslami, 58, of Houston passed away on Tuesday, September 25, 2012. He was born on September 27, 1953 in Tehran, Iran to Hossein Eslami and Khadijeh Mali. He moved to Houston in the 1970's and attended the University of Houston earning a degree in Engineering. He owned a local restaurant and was a Realtor in the area. Anthony was a wonderful artist and painted in oil for many years. He enjoyed playing sports with his kids and loved cooking and spending time with his family and friends at home. He loved the Lord and serving others. He was a faithful member of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church, member of "That Man Is You", and the youth group –EDGE- middle school formation. He was also active in the Cursillo Movement.

He is preceded in death by his parents, brother and one sister. He is survived by his wife, Sue Eslami, whom he met in Houston and married in 1991; Sons, Zachary Eslami and Joshua Eslami; Sister, Nahid Eslami; Nephew, Behrooz "Bruce" Hemati, and niece, Shahrzad "Sherry" Hemati. The family will be present to receive friends on Friday evening, September 28, 2012 from 5:00pm until 7:00pm with a Rosary being recited at 7:00pm at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church, 6646 Addicks Satsuma Road, Houston, TX (281) 463-7878. The Funeral Mass will be held on Saturday morning, September 29, 2012 at 11:00am at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church with Fr. Paul E. Lockey, Celebrant. Graveside services will follow in procession to Forest Park Westheimer Cemetery.

“ Anthony's life reminds me of Matthew 5:14-16. He never hide the fire of the candle that God lit in his heart under a buschel basket, but let it shine for all men to see. His engaging smile, love of life and committment to his family was an inspiration to all the men that had the privilege of knowing him in That Man Is You. I will wear a St. Anthony medal in his honor so that his friendship and memory are always with me. Leon Fontana
