

Aprille Tedder Magill

February 22, 1958 - November 7, 2022

Aprille Denise Tedder was born on February 22, 1958 to Mary Jo Shaw Tedder and Wm. Glenn Tedder in Dallas, Texas.

Aprille is survived by her husband of 47 years. Martin D. “Marty” Magill, her mother Mary Jo Tedder of Fritch, Texas, brother in-law Chris Magill and wife, Janet, nephew, Niko Karagiannis and wife, Jina and great nephew Aiden and great niece Aubrie, Aunt Dorothy Shaw Davis and husband Jay. She was preceded in death by her father, Glenn Tedder and her be-loved in-laws Vera Jo and E. E.”Steppy” Magill. Aprille was blessed with many cousins and dear friends, considered as family, that will miss her smile.

Aprille graduated from Northbrook High School in 1976, after marrying her high school sweetheart Marty in December 1974. In later years Marty and Aprille enjoyed celebrating their anniversary at Taste of Texas. Aprille worked diligently as an office manager/accountant throughout her life and even managed a country band. She retired to help care for her mother in-law and father in-law.

Aprille had many passions and talents including planning and taking multiple trips to Disney World and many cruises, most favorite to Alaska and the Mediterranean. Aprille and Marty most recently sailed from Galveston sharing their adventure with her Mother Mary Jo.. Aprille enjoyed swag-bucks, blogging with travel companions, and crafting, always creating thoughtful handmade treasures for Christmas gifts. Aprille was an avid reader and she and her mom enjoyed their morning conversations about their Kindle book finds. She and Marty enjoyed celebrations with family and friends and traveling, creating many memories and exciting adventures.

Aprille and Marty recently settled in at Magilligans Island on Demi-John island, to enjoy beautiful sunsets and margaritas. Aprille and Marty were supporters of REACH Unlimited and Wounded Warriors. Aprille was a HUGE Astros fan.

The family will be present to receive guests on Tuesday, November 15, 2022 from 5:00 PM til 8:00 PM in the Chapel of Dettling Funeral Home, 14094 Memorial Drive, Houston TX 77079.
