“ We met Jack & Lu Ann at Spring Valley Tennis Club in Dallas in 1976 shortly after we moved to Dallas. We were about 28 and they were about 48! We became great friends playing tennis it seems every weekend. I played with Lu Ann and Jack played with Kaye. These were "grudge matches"!! We had so much fun laughing and trying to beat each other! The most fun of our lives! We went on several trips together, London/Ireland, Boston/New England and others. One of the trips was with two other couples to Lakeway in Texas where we played tennis and pranks. We went into Jack & Lu Ann's room and took all of Jack's booze. When he came back to his room he could not find it and he went crazy. "You won't believe it, someone broke into our room and stole all my whiskey"! It was hilarious.

We will miss you Lu Ann. Kaye always said as we started our family in 1982 when she had questions she would always call Lu Ann for the answer about the kids.

We love you!

“ Sue and I were long time friends of Lu Ann and Jack. We were together in Connecticut, Dallas, and Houston (IBM) and had many happy times and travels together. Sue and Lu Ann had a unique rapport, They would talk a mile a minute and never run out of things to discuss. We loved seeing their children grow up. Lu Ann was what we all wish for: a faithful friend! Her smile always displayed what a beautiful person she was, inside and out. Jack's and Lu Ann's marriage and their devotion to their family and friends were deep and abiding.
