Beatrice was born in Stockdale, Texas on February 1, 1927 and grew up in Victoria, Texas. She graduated from Patti Welder High School in Victoria, Texas and took some college courses. As a young woman, she worked, learned to cook, sew and take care of a family before marrying Robert and having a family of her own. She and Robert were married on December 31, 1955 and were married for 65 years until his death in 2021. Together with her husband, Beatrice enjoyed a life-long commitment to the Catholic church and raised her family in it. They put their children through Catholic school for many years. She was a gifted seamstress and adept at creating many hand-crafted items. She was an active member of St. Matthew's Catholic Church for many years. She enjoyed attending dances, activities with the Knights of Columbus, church festivals and spending time with family.

She will be remembered as a devoted daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and aunt to so many. Throughout the years, she also cared for children in the neighborhood where she lived. She spent a lifetime caring for others.

We look forward to the day when we are all reunited in Heaven.
