

Beatrice Waters

October 29, 1926 - May 8, 2015

Beatrice Waters, 88, of Houston passed away Friday, May 8, 2015. Mrs. Waters was born October 29, 1926 in Jersey City, NJ to Jacob and Tillie Barak. She is preceded in death by her parents and her husband of 42 years, Raymond Waters. Bea is survived by her sons, Tod Waters and Neal Waters; nieces, Linda Barak Ruggiero, Joan Terry, Ginger Quail, Gina Weiss and Patricia Rose; nephews, Ken Harris, Bill Ciesla and Phillip Barak; sisters-in-law, Lucille Barak and Evelyn Waters.

Beatrice grew up in the New York area where she met and married the love of her life Raymond Waters. She worked as a secretary in School District 14 in Woodmere, NY for many years. Beatrice moved to Houston in 1968 where she and Raymond raised their two sons. While in Houston she worked for the City of Spring Valley and City of Piney Point. She was a longtime member of St. John Vianney Catholic Church.

Bea was a very creative person who loved to knit, paint, bake and write calligraphy. She was a kind caring person who laughed often and told a great joke. She enjoyed spending time with her family and friends and well as spending time at her church. Bea was loved by those who knew her and will be greatly missed.

“ Dear Tod and Neal, What a remarkable lady you had for a mother! She was talented and intelligent and fun and loved you two boys so much. I had many a delightful conversation with her. I hope I can make it to the visitation to give each of you a hug.

*Love,
Jill Kershner*
