

Belkis Hernandez

January 8, 1927 - July 1, 2018

Belkis Hernandez, 91, peacefully passed away on July 1, 2018 in Katy Texas. She was born on January 8, 1927 to Manuel and Altagracia Cuza, in Holguin Cuba. She came to the United States in 1943 and later became the wife of Louis Hernandez. Belkis was a volunteer member of the ladies auxiliary, a homemaker, a successful convenience store proprietor, but most of all she was a kind and loving person to all who she met.

Belkis was the Queen of her family who always had a smile on her face no matter the circumstance. She dispensed insightful advice to her family and friends. She loved to make you laugh with her silly faces and gestures while always demonstrating her love for her family. She was the rock, the foundation, a true matriarch of her family, and loved by all. She will be truly missed.

Survivors include her three daughters, Sonia Reskallah, Dorca Pimentel, and Lois McGibbon; Nine Grandchildren, Julio Cordero, Sonia Rossi, Dr. Alexander Reskallah, John Guillen, Yadira Garcia, Patrick McGibbon, Yudania Rodriguez, Johnathon Hernandez, Justine Hernandez Romero, and 15 Great Grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband Louis Hernandez, and her children Guillermina Garcia and Louis Hernandez
