

Berwyn Thompson "Tom" Moore Jr.

July 6, 1928 - June 7, 2011

Berwyn Thompson Moore Jr. (83) of Houston passed away on June 7, 2011. "Tom" was born on July 6, 1928 to Alice Montague and Berwyn T. Moore. He grew up in Louisville, KY, and graduated from Male High School, where he was a member of the Athenaeum Literary Association. Tom attended the University of Louisville, before enlisting in the US Air Force. Tom was stationed at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, TX, where he was a drill sergeant during the Korean War.

Following the war, Tom joined his dad's company as a stock broker for six years in Louisville. He also worked for Merrill Lynch in Florida, before coming to Houston in 1975, where Tom founded a thriving real estate investment business.

Tom was a dedicated volunteer at M.D. Anderson Hospital for many years. Tom will be buried with his parents in his beloved Louisville. He was an only child and had no living relatives, but had a huge circle of friends he considered his "family". He never met a stranger. He wanted to be remembered as lifetime member of AAA and Sam's Club, and one the founders of the Saturday Morning Emergency Meeting at Randall's.

"Tom, you will be missed and never forgotten."

A memorial service to celebrate Tom's life will be held at 2 pm Saturday, June 11, at D. M. Dettling Funeral Directors, 14094 Memorial Drive, Houston, TX 77079.

Donations may be made to M.D. Anderson Cancer Center, P.O. Box 4486,

Houston, Texas 77210-4486.
