December 28, 1948 - February 9, 2022

Bonita B. Maglitto ,73, of Houston passed away peacefully on February 9, 2022. Bonita was born December 28, 1948, in Houston, Texas to Sam and Bonita Liggio Brocco. Bonita enjoyed spending time in the kitchen creating delicious meals for her family; she adored all of her grandchildren and relished every moment of time she spent with them. She was a member of the Amiketos club. She loved gathering with friends, and enjoyed cheering on her favorite Texas teams: the Astros and the Texans. “ Bonnie was the sister of my brother-in-law, Greg Ward. I had the opportunity to meet her through some family celebrations at Greg and my sister, Cathy's, home. I found Bonnie to be sweet and sociable. Her smile seemed infectious to me. While Bonnie will be greatly missed by all her loved ones her beautiful soul will live on in each one of them. Hopefully that can bring a little solace to her family. My heartfelt condolences go out to her loved ones. Patty Bengele

“ Although not related, we shared some fun family gatherings with Bonnie. Her brother Greg Ward married my niece Cathy and this fortunate union gave us the opportunity to meet this beautiful and gracious lady. Her sweet smile will be missed by all but she will remain in loving memory in the hearts of all who knew her. Our prayers and sympathy to all her family. Dorothy and John Becker

“ I have many memories of Bonita growing up. She was such a sweet and beautiful lady. Always wearing a smile on her face. She was the pride and joy of her mother and father. We later became sisters of the Amiketos Club and were able to spend some time together. You will all be in my prayers and thoughts. She will be truly missed.
