

Caroline Anne Weller

November 20, 1949 - November 25, 2021

Caroline Anne Weller 72, of Houston passed away November 25, 2021. Caroline was born November 20, 1949, in Fenton, Michigan to James and Anne Cohoon. She is preceded in death by her father. She is survived by her husband Jim of 51 years of marriage, her son Jim Jr., her daughter-in-law Tiesha, and her grandchildren Kharis and Reid, and her mother Anne.

Caroline grew up in Fenton, Michigan, and she graduated from Fenton High School. She attended Alma College in Alma, Michigan where she met her husband, Jim. The first four years of Caroline and Jim's marriage was spent in San Diego while Jim was in the Navy. Because of career opportunities, Caroline and Jim lived in nine states. Caroline loved meeting other people in different areas of the Country, and she made numerous friends along the way.

Caroline was a human resources benefits coordinator. She truly enjoyed helping employees understand their company benefits. She even learned to enjoy to speak in front of large groups, and she and her personality blossomed.

Caroline enjoyed yoga, exercising, and she was an avid reader. Her favorite activity was traveling to Colorado to be with her son, daughter-in-law, and grandchildren. She was a member of the Briar Grove Park Bunko Group and the Briar Grove Park Women's Club.

Caroline was a very special person. She was non-judgmental, and she treated everyone with kindness and acceptance. She was generous and kind-hearted to a fault, and she always put the interests and needs of others before her own. As one of her best friends poignantly stated “God just got a beautiful angel.”

In Lieu of flowers, the family requests that contributions be made in Caroline’s name to St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital.
