“ It very difficult to think of the loss of this fine gentleman, a neighbor and family friend which began while living on Chadbourn in Nottingham Forest beginning back in 1969. Chuck, Shirley, Michael & Rosemary provided some very memorable experiences and helped us to find our way in adjusting to a new life in Texas. They were so many fun times we shared as we raised our children. We know that Shirley and God is anxious to show Chuck his new home. To Michael & Rosemary we send our deepest and sincere sympathy for your loss.

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Chuck and extend our sympathies to Mike and Rosemary. Chuck will be remembered by me as the gentleman salesman for Armco/National Supply for many years while I was a Purchasing rep for Transco /Superior Oil and Mobil Oil. We enjoyed many dove hunts together, visits with Chuck and Shirley at their home in memorial as well as at our retirement home here in Hallettsville. A true friend and gentleman that will be missed.
