

Charlotte Koenig

November 2, 1923 - October 12, 2014

Charlotte Koenig passed away on October 12th just weeks shy of her 91st birthday after a short illness. She had both of her children at her side when she went to be with our Lord.

Born in New York City in 1923 to Francis O'Keeffe and Charlotte Peck she later married her grammar school sweetheart Ernest Koenig. They enjoyed fifty-six years of loving marriage and together raised two children and were blessed with three grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, siblings and her beloved Ernie and is survived by her daughter Eileen Koenig Fostey and her husband, Jeff, of Houston, and her son Paul Koenig and his wife, Maria, of Fredericksburg, VA, and grandchildren Christina Koenig, Charlotte Fostey, and Paul Fostey.

A lifetime homemaker and friend to so many, she accompanied Ernie in his career travels and transfers and then focused on their children's education and upbringing. Her faith and her family were the center of her life and the arrival and accomplishments of her grandchildren gave her much joy. All who knew her enjoyed her company and friendship and will surely miss her.
