

Charlotte Maluski

March 16, 1933 - August 3, 2017

Charlotte Maluski, born in Camden, Arkansas on March 16, 1933 to Charlotte Reynolds Anderson and E. T. “Andy” Anderson, joined them and her husband of 52 years, Tony E. Maluski, Jr. (who first saw her on a parade float), and her youngest son, Robert Maluski, on August 3, 2017. Survived by her sons, Tony Maluski and partner Dr. Steve Milner, Nowell Maluski and wife Mary, Jeff Maluski and wife Carol, Daniel Maluski and husband Paul Tucciarone, daughter Beth Dawson and husband Dan; grandchildren Nowell Maluski Jr, Cory and Andrea Maluski, Kelleen Maluski and Brian Lisi, CJ and Larissa Maluski, Elese and Sam Grazak, Mary and Tommy Johnson, Christina and Zach Scheaffer, and Danielle Dawson; and great grandchildren Bailey, Makenzi, Harlee, William, Luke, Savannah, and Colt.

Charlotte was a proud and dedicated matriarch with constant involvement in all of her children’s activities including sports and scouting as well as religious and academic education, often assuming a leadership role in those organizations. Her children could always depend on her for support and advocacy.

Charlotte attended Tulane University and had a rich work history, starting with selling magazines and working for American Airlines in New York City prior to marrying Tony. Later she became an interior decorator and helped managed the family construction company. Following the death of their son Robert,

Charlotte and Tony established the Samaritan Ministry. Charlotte dedicated a great deal of time and energy over the last 25 years of her life to serving the sick, homebound, and grieving, touching countless lives through her kindness, compassion, and generosity. Charlotte was especially skilled at providing support to the grieving in her grief support groups; even after the Samaritans ministry formally closed she continued to offer a compassionate shoulder and wise council at St. John Vianney and St. Catherine's Catholic churches.

The Maluski family will be present to receive friends Sunday, August 6, 2017 from 2:00 PM until 4:00 PM with a Vigil Rosary at 3:00 PM at Dettling Funeral Home, 14094 Memorial Dr., Houston, TX 77079. The Mass of Christian Burial will be held Monday, August 7, 2017 at 10:00 AM at St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Church, 10688 Shadow Wood Dr., Houston, TX 77043. Mrs. Maluski will be laid to rest following Hoy Mass at Memorial Oaks Cemetery. Visit DettlingFuneral.com to leave words of condolence for the family.

“ To the Charlotte Maluski family,
You may remember, my late husband, Ed (Dold) and I were your neighbors in Jersey Village from 1973 until I moved to San Antonio in 1994. We went through countless trials of home ownership, storms, family disasters, and I have wonderful memories of those years. I remember when a hurricane was brewing in the Gulf and Ed and I were away on vacation. When we came home our patio furniture had all been moved into our garage, and the plants were safe and secured in the house. When I told Charlotte - "I don't know what to say"...her reply was ... "Just be glad you moved next door to a family with 6 kids!" So true! We never had a moment's difficulty - except when I confronted a kid in my bushes late one night, only to find out they were there to surprise one of the Maluski kids! Then there was the time during another hurricane that our wooden fence leaned over on Tony's car and broke his antenna. He was glad the car was there to keep the fence from doing additional damage. My Mom lived with us, and it was her joy to help Charlotte make Beth's wedding dress. She was a beautiful bride!
I didn't get to see Charlotte much after moving to San Antonio, but we were occasionally in touch, especially with Christmas letters. I loved hearing about the kids and grandkids, and just never took the time to visit her on my quick trips back; and for that I am sorry. She was a breath of fresh air and always had a smile and laugh that was contagious.
I know you miss her. I join you in remembering many good times.
Sincerely,
Teri (Dold) Dykman

“ To the Maluski Family,
Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time. Losing a loved one is so very difficult, but we trust that God knows what is best. Your Mom loved the Lord, and is now in the heavenly place that God has prepared for her.

Dan, we love you, and continue to pray for your strength at this time.

Love,
DeeDee and Charles!!!!
