

Cherry Cramer Roberts

November 21, 1952 - April 20, 2023

Cherry Roberts, 70, of San Antonio, passed away on April 20, 2023. Cherry was born on November 21, 1952, in Jonesboro, Arkansas to Ruth Cherry Cramer and Thomas Vivian Cramer. She is preceded in death by her parents and husband, Kenneth Carl Roberts, of 23 years of marriage. She is survived by her sons Jacob Thomas Roberts and Will Cramer Roberts, her stepchildren Kenneth Carl Roberts II and Denise Renee Farish, and her brother Thomas Edward Cramer, along with their families. Cherry has seven grandchildren, two nieces, one nephew, and one great-nephew. She loved, and was loved by all.

Cherry grew up in El Pas, Texas and graduated from Coronado High School. She began college at the University of Arkansas, returning home to take courses at UT El Paso. She was always a RazorBack at heart. Cherry moved to San Antonio after meeting her husband, Kenneth. She lived in San Antonio for 42 years prior to spending the last six months of her life in Houston with her children. Cherry worked as a Nursing Home Administrator in her young adulthood before she began her career as a homemaker after marrying Kenneth. Cherry's favorite role in life was that of wife and mother. She was always passionate about and fiercely loved her family.

Cherry enjoyed keeping close connections with friends, volunteering, and traveling. She was an active member of the PEO Chapter H, as well as the Parent Teachers Association while her sons were in school. She held several officer roles in both organizations throughout the years. Cherry was also a member of the Coker United Methodist Church where she spent many hours volunteering and organizing the Food Pantry & Clothes Closet. Cherry was a loving and thoughtful person, with a great sense of humor, and she was tough! She could usually laugh at the hard things of life, and always supported friends and family through difficult times.

The Funeral Service will be held at Coker United Methodist Church in San Antonio, Texas. The service will begin at 10:00 AM on Friday, June 23, 2023. In lieu, please consider a charitable donation to the Coker Food Pantry and Clothes Closet.
