“ Cheryl, although I never met Christopher, I can see such beauty. I know that he loved you, and you loved him. Sometimes we just don't know the answers, as to why things happen. And we may never know, until that glorious day, when we will see our love ones again. But you can rest a sure that George and I feel your pain, and although time will heal, to a certain degree. Remember the beautiful memories, that Christopher left. And that is something no one can take away from you. Remember that I am always here for you, as we both know the pain. We can just lean on each other, and cry our hearts out. George and I are so sorry, for the loss of precious Christopher, a life gone too soon. George and Donna Doinidis ♡

“ Chris i can't believe you are gone, I know you are happy where you are, and I have some comfort knowing one day I will see you again, you will always have my heart. I keep wishing and hoping that this isn't so... but I have to face it, this is real... your sister and mother, are wonderful human beings, and very strong women, I remember the day you told me how much you loved jade, and that you'd always protect her, I believe that is true even still now. I will never forget you, and I will always hold your letters close to my heart. There won't be one day, that I won't think about you, or your smile, or your infectious laugh. You tried to see the best in everyone, you were just far to perfect for this world, you will always always always Have a special place in my heart.. It hurts me more then anything that I won't be able to make it to your funeral, and I know you wouldn't want me to be sad, I just can't see life being good with out you here. You comforted me through some of the toughest times. Rest easy Chris Lind. Love Ana banana..

“ My son, we've been through so many adventures together. Some more wild than a mom can comprehend and I wore out my knees. My knees are healed now. When I saw your head on Gabriel's shoulder with his hand lifted high praying for you to the song "we Believe" this praying mom's heart was filled with joy. Little did I know then that is what I am holding onto. I close my eyes and see your smiling non chalant face. Watching you capture and read your surroundings and sit back and chill knowing arguing with fools is indeed foolish. You were wise in so many ways. Your gift was compassion and loyalty even when it wasn't logical. You didn't care. You were going to stick by like that strump tattoo from the giving tree for those you loved to sit on and let it all go. You said more than once, "ma, why do you care what this world thinks and how people treat you when we're living for heaven." You astounded me with your wisdom and Your warned me with your love. I see you now. I really see you standing in the glory of God fully accepted, fully loved, fully complete. You left this earth too soon for me but in perfect timing with the Lord. You are free and when we see each other again in 20 years or so it will be like a minute for you. Run through the multi color fields, sit on the shining hill, have your soul filled with unspeakable joy and be there to welcome me when I leave this life too and step into heaven with you. Mom

Cheryl Your spirit, your love for life, your loving devoted being was a full description of who Christopher was. You lived your life without fair, with endurance to survive hurtles that were very high to get over. Your Christopher was all you. How blessed was he to know how to live his life and enjoy it right to the end. It was his enjoyment for living that took him. I know his life was short lived, Unimaginably short lived, but it was lived filled with love and living it the best he knew how.

Chris is with us in Spirit and will never leave. He is at eternal peace, an angel was born when Chris died. Yes there will come a day that you Cheryl will join your Christopher and once again be together. That day will be far off, but it will come. For now Chris lies at peace with his Grandmother, Grandfather and his Uncle who I am sured welcomed him. God Bless Christopher, May he rest in peace

Cheryl, my dear prayer partner~God knows how it feels to give up a son. I know you are being comforted by the Holy Spirit and by the reality that your son is face to face with Jesus. Your prayers have availed much. And now, please know you are held in my prayers and the prayers of the church.

*Much love,

Chris was a wise young man - describing how we should live our life - not letting other people affect him by their opinions. You have demonstrated love and demonstrated discipleship and He has learned these from you. Cannot begin to imagine the hurt you are going thru at this moment. Hopefully, you feel the love coming from many directions and will allow it help ease your pain. Knowing that God wants to cradle you in his arms,give you strength as he holds you tight. Yes heaven is where Chris is now living. Cheryl you have taught one of God,s children well! Praying and asking that God will be your strength.
