“ Sending love and prayers for Mary and all the family. Although we have lived many miles apart, Mary and I are first cousins, our mothers were sisters. God bless and comfort all of you.

“ We remember how kind and generous Clyde was to our family when we had just moved back to Houston after 6 years abroad. While we were waiting for our container to arrive, Clyde went out of his way to enthusiastically lend us basic things to help make us feel comfortable during the wait. He hardly knew us, but he wanted to help in any way he could.

We pray for his soul and for Mary and the family during this difficult time.

Blessings,

“ I remember Clyde as a fun loving generous kind of guy. We had some good times at his hunting ranch and it was often not easy keeping up with what he and Mary were up to next. Mary, Doug, Greg, and families, in your time of sorrow, we are praying for your peace. The peace that only He can give, through Christ Jesus.

“ So very sorry for your loss. Clyde was the kindest most thoughtful man I ever worked with. I have always held him in the highest regard.
