“ George Bernard Shaw once wrote, "Life is no brief candle. It is a splendid torch that one holds for a moment. Make it burn as brightly as possible before passing it on to future generations." Connie's torch burned ever so brightly, just not long enough. She lit up a room and warmed the hearts of all therein when she entered. The best way we can honor Connie is to carry her flame forward doing God's good works along the way. She was an angel on earth and now God has called her home. John-David, you are in our thoughts and prayers!
