“ Conrad truly was a prime example of what the Lord can do when He sets his mind to it! Conrad filled the room and made it fun, but sometimes a bit scary, to be in it. The boys in the detention center where Conrad took part in ministry could connect to him like they never could to me!! The best way I can describe Conrad is from my Easter reading in John 20: Peter and John ran to see the empty tomb, John got there first but didn't go in; Peter got there after John and burst straight in. Conrad was Peter! Lord you've got a good one, but be careful when he starts a sentence with, "this is a true story....." I love you brother.

“ I will always remember Hurricane Harvey - not just because my house flooded, but also because Conrad and Sheri came to my rescue even though we only knew each other through our church. You took me in dog and all. Both of us soaking wet. With a warm hug and booming welcome. Next morning I find my dog in bed with the DeGraces plus Bodie. Such a lovely experience staying with you those days. We became such close friends. I will miss you so much Conrad. Especially those incredible hugs! Love you.

“ I knew Conrad for 58 years and watch him grow from a young man just out of the army to a very successful professional. There are few like him in regard to laughter and love of life.
