“ We are sorry to hear about your loss. Sickness has robbed us of our loved ones resulting in their death. May these scriptures bring you all comfort. Isaiah 33:24 promises , "And no resident will say: "I am sick." The people dwelling in the land will be pardoned for their error." When Jesus was on earth he healed the sick and raised the dead. At John 11:25 "Jesus said to her: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." What a wonderful hope we can look forward to and may God strengthened you in the days ahead.

“ George, Diane, and Steve,
Words can't even begin to explain how sorry I am to hear about your loss. Dan was such a genuine, caring, and wonderful person. He left a lasting memory no matter how long or short of a time you knew him. So many memories are flooding my mind. Even though it's been many years, I remember all the good times we shared, especially all the fun game nights. Not too many people come into your life and leave such a meaningful impact such as y'all have and I am very blessed to have known you. I am truly sorry for your loss and my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. You will always be in my heart, as will Dan.

“ It was wonderful to meet Danny at Baker's Acres in South Carolina. His mastery of so many practical things was a Godsend to my mom, Helen Baker. We enjoyed his homemade soaps, his earthen root cellar, and the fruits of his many handy-man skills. He brought a gentle peace to the Acres and made a warm, lasting impact on me and my family. Rest in peace, Danny.
