“ A belated memory to my friend and brother Sir Knight David, I will miss our long conversations over the phone after Nita and I moved to Austin in 2012. You shared your heart and work challenges over these last 7 years. I hope I was able to give you my life experiences in management and personal relationships that helped you deal with your everyday work and career decisions. I was glad you could share with me. Take care, God Bless. You are in my nightly prayers Sir Knight David. Fraternally, jack

“ A very special honor it was to have met and known Dave for the past eight years. We first met sharing a turkey carving table helping to prepare the St. Cyril's Thanksgiving Day meal for the poor and homeless. We forged a mutual friendship. Each Thanksgiving I would look for Dave ultimately enjoying what would be hours of conversation while working side by side along the carving station. He was gifted with a very considerate always positive nature and a sincere interest in helping others. I noticed and greatly admired those qualities. Once when I mentioned a fellow parishioner was out of work, Dave quickly asked I inform this person fill out an application. Other times, we would catch up as he sat outside the church entrance collecting for various causes. He gave of himself as Jesus asks. While preparing for a business trip, my heart was shocked to learn Monday of David's passing. For Nora and David's entire family, I believe without doubt, Dave is safely in God's Heaven, the most beautiful place of all. In your sadness I extend a hand of friendship, prayer, and a sincere offer to help with whatever might be needed. It would my honor.
