

Deborah Jean Scanlan

December 15, 1956 - August 13, 2017

Deborah J Scanlan passed away peacefully on Sunday, August 13th in Houston, surrounded by family.

Debbie was born in Pittsburgh, PA to August and Elizabeth Rumski on December 15, 1956. She is survived by her husband, Tim Scanlan, son Chris Scanlan and wife Marina, daughter Colleen West and husband Jason, her siblings Duane Rumski, Karen Kramer, Kevin Rumski, Brian Rumski, and Kathy Rumski, along with their families, her parents, and her grandchildren, Andre, Alex, Willow and Nathan.

Debbie never met a stranger and welcomed everyone with open arms and a loving heart. She was the life of the party and had a smile and personality that could light up any room. Her proudest achievement was her two children. She devoted her life teaching them to be the wonderful adults and parents that they are today. Her greatest passion was her four grandchildren, which as she often mentioned made her so happy.

A Funeral Mass will be celebrated Wednesday, August 16, 2017 at 10:30 AM at St. John Vianney Catholic Church, 625 Nottingham Oaks Trail, Houston, TX 77079. A reception will follow Holy Mass on the church campus. Visit www.DetlingFuneral.com to leave words of condolence for the family.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations in Debbie's name to Susan G.

“ We will so miss your smiling face walking around the neighborhood with Tim. You always welcomed us and our family to every crawfish boil with open arms. I never felt like I was visiting your home but felt like I was at home when we dropped by.

You will be missed and remembered and we are better for having known you. .

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Debbie! We grew up together, and when I would run away from home, Debbie's home was my getaway (even though I walked thru my back yard to get to her house!!!)

We both had a love of the Pittsburgh Pirates, and attended many games! Who said girls couldn't like baseball!

When we would skip school, we would go to Bunny and Ginger's house and borrow their really cool clothes! I still have visions of the apple pin I wore on one of the jackets!

Even though, when she moved to Houston after her wedding, we still kept in touch! She would call me for my birthday, and I would for hers! I had not talked to her recently, and I feel bad I did not reach out to her sooner!

Please know my heart is very heavy right now for your family! She was truly a very special individual! May she rest truly in peach!

“ Tim,
Christine and I were saddened by the news of Debbie's passing. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your children. It's our hope that the strength of your faith and the support of your family and friends will help you during this most difficult time.

Remembering Debbie's visits to Martin Ave. and most recently at the Villanova reunion.

Warmest regards, Richard and Christine Powers

“ Seems there was a New Years Eve party many many years ago at a Hotel (Adams Mark maybe) and Debbie and Tim crashed our hotel room. It was a fun time. You guys also came to our private Catholic Wedding. It meant ALOT to us. Debbie always had a smile and made ya feel like family. Love to you all. Kym & Steve Klak
