“And when I must lead you on a path different from the one you seek, I will prepare you. I will carry you in my arms. Like children who have fallen asleep in their mother’s arms, you will find yourself on the other bank of the river.”

—from The Surrender Novena

Lord Jesus, we pray that you will mercifully carry our precious Donna into your eternal company. May she rest comfortably in peace and joy with her beloved.

“ Donna was never one to judge. She accepted everyone as they were and friends and customers confided in her. She taught me to say “honey” to strangers as a way of showing love. I will miss our visits and drives. You are now in Heaven and yet I will miss you.
