“ I have know Ed for about 50 years. I met him in Elementary school at Saint Thomas More. He was our center on the football team. What he lacked in footspeed was made up with tenacity. No one on the defensive line ever got past him. He was much different person off the football field. How could anyone not like Ed? So mild mannered and so easy to laugh. We shared countless great fishing trips and also few great dove hunts. So many great memories. Even though I saw him less over the last 10 years, whenever we did see each other it was just like old times. He was that kind of friend. The kind you just don't have enough of.
