

Elandis Tamzen Terri Willis-Cashe

August 11, 1956 - June 27, 2025

Elandis Tamzen Terri Willis-Cashe was born on August 11, 1956, in Atlanta, Georgia, to Mattlyne W. Dukes and Walter N. Willis. She passed away, leaving behind her husband, Leroy Cashe; son, Agyei Stubbs; granddaughter, Amani Stubbs; and her younger brother, Lee Grantlin Willis, among many other loved ones.

Elandis was educated in Atlanta and Houston, earning degrees in accounting, Nuclear Medicine Technology, Business Management, and an MBA in Healthcare Administration. She dedicated over 25 years to healthcare, serving as the Director of Services for a cardiology practice.

A devoted member of the Pan African Orthodox Christian Church, Elandis, known as Reverend Theuda, served in various capacities, including Finance Officer and choir member. She was passionate about event planning and community service, contributing significantly to numerous church and community activities.

Elandis embraced motherhood with love and care, and in 1993, she married Leroy Cashe, enjoying over 30 years of marriage filled with family gatherings and travel.

Reverend Theuda believed that "service is the highest expression of God working through you." Now, she returns to the nebula, joining her family as an ancestor. Let us raise an imaginary glass to Elandis "Theuda" Willis-Cashe:

"Now, in a breath, before we, too, grow old, we will mount and sing and spread immortal sails." Travel well, my sister, travel well!

“ *A truly remarkable and outstanding person whose life was a perfect example of how a person should live and be of service to humanity.
She was a help to anyone who encountered her. We have always admired her courageous, generous, and adventurous spirit along with her desire to learn and try something new...fearless in her journey. We hold the family dear in our hearts with love and prayers.

“ I got to know Fundi Theuda as we planned for the 2024 synod. I found my sister to be determined and resourceful. A servant who brought her best and ensured positive results. She brought the fire and delivered on all of her commitments. May the energy she brought to the planning and delivery of a wonderful gathering of our people give us the inspiration to do all we can to keep the Black Nation strong and vibrant. Peace, love and RESPECT as she journeys to the ancestral realm. ~ Fundi Mona Morenike

Elandis was my wife and companion for 30 plus years, and those were the best times of my life. She was truly a marvelous human being who was kind and forgiving to everyone she met. I loved Elandis very much for her unwavering support of my efforts during our marriage. She was a vibrant and positive person who was fun to be with. Those of us whom she touched will miss her as she embarks on her journey to and with the ancestors.

A beautiful Spirit indeed. A committed, high energy, and pleasant person to be around. We were sisters in the struggle and will continue to be through space and time. I've met Theuda's entire family and witnessed her becoming a mother to Agyei. I pray for God's comfort to all who loved her. She is honored and will be missed. Love forever. “ Your were one the most amazing person that I knew at the Shrine in Houston! You dedicated your life to serving Black Americans all over the world because what you did for one you did it for all of us and I truly appreciate that of you. I am going to miss you so much because you have really inspired me to keep pushing forward, when we did the Harlem Renaissance musical you had to be hospitalized but you were still there supporting us and of course being you 😊. Now you are with our holy Ancestors and you don't have to suffer anymore this was my prayer for you. Theuda you know I love traveling and on a trip to Aruba I took this photo that's below and I said this image reminds me of our ancestors going back home crossing the Atlantic Ocean where civilization of the first people black people began home. So I say to your Soul may peace follow you home and we know your spirit will always be with us. Thanks to your family for allowing our paths to cross

“ You have my deepest sympathy. I always admired and respected Elandis for the relationship she had with her mother. She inspired me many years ago to continue with advancing my education. She was on of my first Group leaders at church . I loved her positive and courageous spirit .
