Saw your comment about my mom. Her and I drove by your old house not 6 months ago thinking fondly about our times together. Sorry for your loss too. Pray you and your brother are well. David Farmer

“ To Joe Paseman, I am so saddened and so very sorry that Eleanor has slipped away.

Please know you are in my prayers, I think of you both so often and recall wonderful times we spent together. I understand you are with Dirk in Washington, and although far away, you will always be in my heart, and my prayers are with you.

“ How sad I was to learn of Eleanor's passing. Have known her from working together back in 1950 when we both worked at the same Brokerage firm. She and Joe become my husband's and my very best friends, and we spent many a good time together, Joe being an Aggie, and my Rodney and I being UTexas Longhorns. We even went on a camping trip together, and roared with laughter over the zanny things Joe would come up with. I talked to Eleanor about a month before she died and she was upbeat, feeling pretty good and from time to time she would call me and we would chat about old times. We exchanged some of the plants we both liked.
To Nancy and Dirk, I want you to know your parents were so well liked and we just loved being with them. I shall miss her deeply and she will be remembered in my prayers.
Nancy please write me or email if ever I can do anything for you. We met a long time ago, but we often talked about our children with each other. I knew your Grandmother and she too was a gracious lovely lady. May God grant you the peace and understanding at what must be a difficult time. Love Betty H. Ludwig

“ My mother loved her plants. She was a green thumb indeed. I think two of her favorite plants were, orchards and azaleas. A very loving, caring and spiritual lady. I miss her dearly and know she is in God's holy kingdom of peace. Love you Mom.....Nancy

“ I loved having Eleanor as part of my Community Bible Study Core Group 2 years ago. God's light shined brightly through Eleanor, and she always had a kind word for others and a smile on her face. She was a beautiful person inside and out. I am really going to miss Eleanor. Praying for peace and comfort for her loved ones!
