“ Uncle Ernest I love you and miss you. You always made me laugh and put a smile on my face. I like when you use to tell me kidding " You bigga banana." And how when I was only one month old you pierced my ears. I am glad I was that little when my ears were pierced. Love always

“ *To my Uncle Ernest, I recall the times I had visited and stayed in your home you shared great stories of our family history. You are resting now the in arms of our Father along with those we loved that passed before you. You will be missed and may those you left behind find comfort in knowing you are now at peace and in no more pain.
With loving thoughts, your niece, Diana Garcia Rangel*
