“ Dear Jim, Merry and Jim Jr., I am so sad! It's terrible to lose a spouse or a mother. To lose Eunice effects so many others. She touched so many lives through her Church, her work, her neighbor's, all of whom became her friends. I feel so fortunate to consider myself as one. We moved to Fleetwood about the same time and came to know one another first as new neighbors, then as bridge friends, and later as close friends She became the cornerstone for our neighborhood and her Church. We, Carter and I, shared so many wonderful times with Eunice and Jim as the years pasted and grew to love and respect them both as a fun loving couple who were devoted to their family and loved their pups as much as we loved ours. It was a joy to be with Eunice and I feel fortunate to have been her friend. My life is richer for having known her and will miss her. I know that she is in God's loving arms. Pat Newton
