

Evaline J. Shamblin

April 27, 1913 - September 1, 2012

Evaline Jones Clark Shamblin passed away Saturday, September 1, 2012. She was born April 27, 1913, to Elgie J. and Eva T. Jones in McLouth, Kansas. After moving to Arizona, she graduated from Phoenix Union High School and then from the University of Arizona with a Bachelor of Arts in Romance Languages in 1935. While attending the University of Arizona she met and subsequently married George D. Clark. They moved to Houston in 1955, where Evaline belonged to the Houston Junior League and the P.E.O. In 1977, following the death of George D. Clark, she married Leo S. Shamblin of Houston. They resided at the St. James until Leo's death in 1997. Evaline then moved to the Hallmark, where she lived until her passing. She is survived by her son, George D. Clark, Jr and his wife, Melanie B. Clark of Paradise Valley, Arizona, her step-daughter Anne S. Baillio and her husband Robert Baillio of Houston, her step-daughter Leigh S. Parrot and her husband Kenneth Parrot, of Louisville, Kentucky, and two grandsons, three step-granddaughters, two step-grandsons and numerous great-grandchildren.

Evaline taught in the public schools of Arizona from 1942 until 1950. Leaving teaching, she served as President of the Arizona Children's Home Society, Alumni Adviser to the U of A Chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta and a member and officer of the Tucson Junior League. She was a Life Master in the American Contract Bridge League and enjoyed the game at all levels from tournaments to strictly social games with friends. Up until recent years, she enjoyed travel, visiting Africa and Asia with George and Europe several times with Leo, as well as traveling extensively within the United States and Canada for visits with family, sightseeing, sport fishing and hunting.

Graveside services will be held Wednesday, October 3, 2012 at 10:30 AM at Memorial Oaks Cemetery, 13001 Katy Freeway, Houston, TX 77079.
