

Faustino Liceaga

April 14, 1959 - October 3, 2021

Faustino Liceaga was a loving husband, father, grandfather, and friend. He was called to the Lord on October 3, 2021, at the age of 62.

He was born to Maurilio Liceaga and Petra Ortega in Monterrey, Mexico. Still, Houston, Texas, had been his home for over half his adult life, where he established and raised his family.

Faustino, called Wicho by those who knew and loved him, was kind, unselfish, generous, and, moved by his Catholic Faith, always eager and open to helping anyone and everyone in need. One of Wicho's greatest loves was mentoring youth both on and off the soccer field. Coach Wicho, as his pupils referred to him, devoted his life to providing an excellent social service to the community by helping youth use their leisure time healthily while developing their soccer talents.

Wicho is survived by his wife, Betty, who was his first love and partner for more than 40 years, sons Sergio, Steve, and Diego, and his beloved grandchildren, Victoria and Ezra, and a soon-to-be-born grandson.

Wicho touched many lives and will be greatly missed by his family, friends, and anyone who had the great fortune to have known him.

We pray that Wicho, by the mercy of God, may Rest in Peace.
