

Frederick Herman Meyer

August 22, 1931 - August 26, 2020

I think not that my brother has gone away. His journey actually has just begun. My family always enjoyed his sense of humor and his devotion to Queenie, his German Shepherd. Helpful and faithful are two qualities that came naturally to Fred. Always ready to help someone in need. Helpful, in visiting and offering communion for those in hospitals and for shut-ins at home. Faithful, in that he did both often. We were all amazed at the faithful stand he took against the horrific devastation caused by hurricane Harvey in 2017. His refusal to evacuate when ordered proved his love and protection of home and family over his own life, and God rewarded his stand with complete protection during a most unprecedented catastrophic event. Even Harvey could not conquer Fred's devoted heart.

I wished we could have spent more time together. Distance doesn't make for easy traveling. Just a couple of weeks ago he told me how happy he was with the three birdbaths he placed in his garden. The birds gave him much joy and so did the flowers. He praised and gave thanks to God for it all. God has blessed him with a very loving and faithful wife who gave her deepest care and self to Fred for 31 years. He is dearly remembered by our family; cherished by others and loved by all. I shall treasure him always.
