Yellow

Yellow is the color of the sun golden hair in a bun
the daffodils by the lane

the sunflowers by the grain.

All of these colors, which make me feel mellow, are of the color yellow.

And when you reach the pearly gates, you will not have long to wait to see again the merry mellow color of yellow.

Lorraine
Kelly

“ Hi Tibby, it's Lorraine Kelly from Vitas. We saw your Mom passed away on same day as my Dad and both ended up in the Sunday Obit next to each other! How amazing is that. We both know now they are at peace and among family and friends in Heaven. I know you will miss your Mom terribly as we will miss my Dad. Dad's memorial celebration is tomorrow (June 17). We took a little longer to have the service because of the other issue I was dealing with :(If you need to just chat anytime, please give me a call 832-741-1305. I thought about you all after we left and hoped peace would come quickly for your Mom, you, your husband and Rebecca. Take care and I enjoyed meeting you and talking about our parents. Take care and god bless,
