

Gregory "Greg" John Adami

June 2, 1962 - January 13, 2024

Gregory "Greg" John Adami, 61, passed away in Houston, Texas January 13, 2024, surrounded by his loved ones. Greg was born on June 2, 1962, to Darold and Patricia Adami in Evansville, IN. He is preceded in death by his mother Patricia. He is survived by his wife Debbie of 38 years in marriage, brothers Tom Adami, Chip Adami and wife Tiffany, Sister-in-law Laura Patino and husband Al, 11 nieces and nephews and 6 great nieces and nephews.

Greg was an Eagle Scout and graduated from Sherman High School in Sherman, Texas. Greg graduated with a BA from the University of North Texas where he met his wife, Debbie. They moved to Houston, Texas where he earned his MBA from the University of Houston. He worked in public accounting and as a Tax Director for a Fortune 500 O&G Company in Houston, Texas.

Greg loved hunting with his grandfather and his friends, as well as fishing, golfing, backyard bird watching and snow skiing. He was an active member of Our Lady of Walsingham Catholic Church, served as a Lector, lead bible studies, and volunteered with the Houston Dominican Gala. Greg and his wife spent many weekends at the family lake house enjoying family time while golfing, skiing, family games and more. He was always the first to say yes to travel, whether internationally or to wine country, a cruise or hunting in Argentina.

Greg loved to make people laugh and joke around with his nieces and nephews. Sunday dinners, swimming and grilling while just hanging out with family, where among his favorite family memories.

A Rosary will be prayed at 9:30 AM on Friday, January 19, 2024 at the Cathedral of Our Lady of Walsingham, 7809 Shadyvilla Ln, Houston, Texas 77055. The Holy Mass will be celebrated at 10 AM, with a reception to follow in the Saint Jude Hall. Greg will be laid to rest on Monday, January 22, 2024 at St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery in Sherman, Texas, with a reception to follow at the Church parish.
