

Gregory Gene Jarman

August 10, 1935 - August 8, 2012

Gregory Gene Jarman, 78, of Houston, Tx. died August 8, 2012, at West Houston Medical Clinic. Mr. Jarman had been in failing health for several years. Mr. Jarman was born August 10, 1935 at Joplin, Mo., the son of Ernest and Jane Jarman, who preceded him in death. He attended school mostly in Lexington, Mo., where he also went to Wentworth Military Academy for junior college. He then transferred to the University of Missouri, where he graduated in 1959, and went into the U.S. Army as a second lieutenant. He was stationed at Ft. Sill, Okla., and Ft. Riley, Kansas, finishing his enlistment as aide-de-campe to the commanding general at Ft. Riley, John A. Berry. He remained in the reserves for 6 years. Mr. Jarman spent most of his working career in retail management, working for Montgomery Ward. And he has also worked in proprietary schools in Houston. Survivors include his wife, Barbara, and two sons, Scott and Bruce, and their spouses, Cindy and Darla. Two grandchildren also survive - Taryn and Blayne, the children of Bruce and Darla. A memorial service will be held on Monday, August 13, 2012 in the Chapel of D. M. Dettling Funeral Directors, 14094 Memorial Dr. @ Kirkwood with Rev. Bill Cole officiating. A private inurnment will be held at a later date. Memorial Donations may be made to Wounded Warriors or MD Anderson.

“ We met the Jarman's when Greg and my father worked together at Montgomery Wards. Our families went to the beach together, fishing, and numerous evenings at each other's homes dining, visiting and playing games. Greg could always tell the best stories and jokes! He was such a wonderful, smart man and he will be missed by many. My deepest condolences go out to his beautiful family.
