I met Hank through my parents Tim & Betty Mahoney. Hank played photographer to a party we had for mom and dad on one of their anniversaries. I loved his jokes and even did a palates class with him once. He was good! Rest in peace Hank and keep the jokes going up there in Heaven.

To the Wenzler family - our sincere condolences in Hank's passing. We worked with Hank for years and on the worst days his humor and stories always made us smile. I'm not sure who nicknamed him the Golf Doctor but I remember Gary always called him that, What memories we have. Jeanie & Gary Trippie

“Dear Edna and All the Wenzler, Hardin and Scroggins families, your father's presence and incredible tribute to Stephanie on April 1st is a testament of him. Even after traveling and suffering some mishaps that morning, he truly endured and provided such generosity in his memorable gift of reflections. What a legacy Hank has created. My heart and prayers are with you all,
