

Jacqueline Corey Loving

April 5, 1926 - February 12, 2016

Jacqueline Corey Loving, age 89, loving, devoted, faithful wife, mother, grandmother and friend passed peacefully February 12, 2016 surrounded by her family.

Jacqueline (Jackie) was born on April 5th, 1926 in New Troy Michigan to Alton Wilcox and Verneita Glade Corey. She graduated from Michigan State in 1948 with a degree in education. She was member of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority.

In the summer of 1948 she met Donald George Loving, the love of her life, on a Lake Michigan beach and they were married on August 10th, 1952. Jackie taught school for 13 years in Michigan and Illinois and then moved to Houston in 1970 with her family. Her love of teaching continued with substitute teaching and later mentoring at Meadow Wood Elementary. In addition to being devoted to her family, her passions included sewing, needlework, cooking and playing golf. After retirement she loved to visit Michigan every summer with her husband to escape the Texas heat and visit with friends and family. She was an avid reader and enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren.

Jacqueline was predeceased by her parents, Alton and Verneita, her brother Dean O. Corey; and her father and mother-in-law, George and May Loving. She is survived by Donald Loving of Houston; daughter Lynn Loving Farmer and her husband Richard Joseph Farmer of Katy, TX; daughter Lisa Loving Allen and her husband Charles David Allen, Jr. of Southlake, TX; and the absolute loves of her life, her grandchildren, Cameron, Caroline and Rachel.

A Celebration of Life will be held March 18, 2016 at 2:00pm in Houston at St. Thomas Presbyterian Church, 14100 Memorial Dr., Houston, TX 77079
A reception for family and friends will follow at the church.
