

James F. Webb

September 25, 1947 - March 18, 2012

James F. Webb, 64, of Houston passed away Sunday, March 18, 2012. Jim was born on September 25, 1947 in Hailey, Idaho. After serving in the United States Navy, Jim attended undergraduate school at Oregon State University and received his Master's degree from California State University Northridge. A petroleum geologist, Jim enjoyed an expansive career working for such companies as BP, Hunt Petroleum and Inexs. He was an active member of the Houston Geological Society and the American Association of Petroleum Geologists. He was a bluegrass musician, banjo player, an avid historian, geographer, movie buff, foodie, story teller and dancer. Jim traveled and worked around the world. It's fitting he'll get to heaven first to scope out the highlights. Jim lived enthusiastically and joyfully well, the personification of Carpe Diem. He was strong, honorable, direct and very funny. He especially loved his three girls, and they love him, with unwavering gusto "Correct" He is survived by his parents Phillip and Marian Webb of Reno, NV; his best friend and wife, Karen; daughters, Angela and Carolyn "Queenie"; his hairy son, Nicholas; brothers, Jeffrey and Robert; mother-in-law, Doris Condara and father-in-law, Harold Condara; 12 brothers and sisters-in-law; 24 nieces and nephews and so many dear friends and buddies. Jim had a way of making each feel special. And all will miss him.

A Memorial Mass will be held Thursday, March 22, 2012 at 2:00 PM at St. John Vianney Catholic Church, 625 Nottingham Oaks Trail, Houston, TX 77079. The family requests that in lieu of flowers, memorial contributions be
