“ I always knew of Jane through my Aunt Sharon. Her stories about Jane and her adventures were always so funny and Jane sounded like an amazing woman. Then, I was so fortunate to get to meet her and spend some time with her this past Christmas Eve, as she joined our family for our annual dinner. We did nothing but laugh. That is how I will remember her!

Jane and I kept in contact ever since we both came to Houston. We would even get together with other MHS '62 classmates for lunch from time to time. We even kept up with each other through her job since her boss had property in Missouri City. She battled the "beast" with courage. I am so glad that we all got to visit for our 50th class reunion. She suffers no more and may God comfort us all by knowing she is in a better place.

The phone was ringing. I was in bed. It was late. The time: 11:00 p.m. It was Jane. "Hi", she says. "There's gonna be a lunar eclipse tonight. I'm outside in the driveway, drinking white russians...come on over!" And so I went. I don't remember anything about the moon, but I remember Jane. We stayed outside until 1:00 a.m., laughing, talking, in our pjs, drinking white russians. Thanks for the memory Jane. You will be missed. Say hi to Elvis for me. Love you, Jan
