

Janet Maria Lee

January 28, 1934 - January 6, 2020

Janet Maria Lee, born January 28, 1934, went home to the Lord January 6, 2020. She was preceded in death by her parents, Alice & Edward Picone, and husband, Robert (Bob) Whittier Lee. Janet is survived by her children, Rob, Jennifer, and Tracy; brothers, Edward, David, Paul, and Stephen; son-in-law, Chase and numerous nieces and nephews.

Janet was born in Cambridge, MA. She married Bob, the love of her life, on January 26, 1957. They were married for 57 years. In 1968, Janet moved to Houston with Bob as he began a job with GAI-GMX offshore drilling. She began her career as a real estate agent at Bering Realty then moved to Heritage Texas Properties, where she retired in 2012. Janet played an integral role in the parish life of St. John Vianney by planning parties and events with Bob. Those were the best days. One of her proudest achievements was being on the founding board of St. John XXIII High School in Katy, TX. In her retirement community, Tarrytowne Estates, she was often decorating, planning events, or talking with the staff members. Janet often worked with her hands, making flower arrangements, intricate bows, and cards. More than anything, Janet loved people. Sitting down with a glass of scotch and spending time in conversation with her friends and family was what made her the happiest.

“ I remember all the Christmases at "Aunt Alice's" with Janet, Edward, Paul, David and Steve. All the relatives: Picones, Vanicolas and the Repettos were there. Janet would ask Joyce and I would help to get Jennifer and Robby to bed on Christmas Night. Sometimes we were successful! There was always a beautiful Christmas tree that reached the ceiling of the Picone's exquisite English Tudor Home in Arlington, Mass. A lot of conversation and delicious homemade Italian food made for wonderful memories. When I was ten, I'd say to My Aunt Alice, "Everybody is talking and nobody knows what any one is saying." I can hear her laughter to my comment as if it were yesterday!

*Love,
