“ John was my Dad, Mary made that relationship difficult with her jealousy of his children and family. She made the last years of his life miserable. She kept my brother and I away from Him for her own personal gain. The only thing Mary cared about was his money while Blake and I only cared about our relationship. She did everything in her power to keep us away from him. In the end she got what she wanted his money. She kept us away from him while he was in the nursing home and didn't tell us when he fell and cracked his skull open. That's pure evil. She's pure evil.

Mary is a horrible person, she took my dad way from us. The only thing she cared about is the money, which she got.
