“ I am so very sorry to hear of JC's passing! I just could not believe my ears when they told me. He was our waiter when my daughter wanted "pizza in the mall". He was such a kind person to put up with the mess a 2 yr old makes but every time we came in he greeted us with a smile. You could just tell it was genuine. He was a very kind and had a smile that just resonated his personality. I will truly miss seeing him on Thursday nights and having the only person that I have ever found love Mountain Dew, like me, smile! I have never met any of his family or friends, but I do know that you lost someone very special. He was one of a kind. My heart goes out to you all.

“ My relationship just recently began getting closer with Jc as we were seeing more and more of each other. He was becoming a big part of my family as my dad proposed to his mom. I now had gained another brother which I was trilled about. He was such an amazing person to be around. We were always laughing and joking around with each other just like brother and sisters do. He would make fun of me and I would make fun of him right back. He knew just what to say in the right moment to make me laugh and smile. His personality was amazing in every way. The most amazing memory I will have of him will be that the last conversation we had with each other which was when he was over at my apartment and we were talking about how we were becoming a family. He was telling me about how he was happy how he finally had a complete family and was no longer an only child. He now had a sister, which was me, and two brothers, which was Nick my fiance, and Josh my brother. Jc then told me that he was especially happy to have a sister because he always wanted to have one for some odd reason. He told me I was an amazing sister, and I in return told him he was an amazing brother. After the whole conversation we said we loved each other. That moment will be a memory I will never forget, and I'm happy I got those words out of him. Like I said before Jc will be someone I will never forget. He may of gained his wings and be flying in heaven with God, but he will always be my brother in my heart. I will always be thinking about you Jc, and will always love you. Can't wait to see you in heaven:)

“ Jose was a very happy spontaneous person. We remember the way he always smiled no matter what the situation. He was a very thoughtful person and always giving positive advice. Our family will always have a place for him.

“ I was saddened to see jc's obituary in the paper this morning. As soon as I saw that sweet smile, I recognized our family's favorite waiter from California pizza kitchen. We were regulars and my 4 year old daughter had a huge crush on him. He was so sweet to her and made her feel special, spending time to sit and chat with her every time we were in. We will miss seeing him and his beautiful smile. What a wonderful young man. We will never forget my little girls first "crush". Your family will be in our prayers.

“ To all of those who cared for and loved Jose Carlos:

*Hello, my name is Maria Isabel. I know how it feels to lose a son all of a sudden because that happened to me in 2002. Something that helped me was reading the promise that the Bible gives us, which is the hope to see again those who we have lost in death. In the book of John, chapter 11, Jesus lost a very close friend and he compared death with resting in sleep (John 11:11-13). In that same chapter, Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life." Now all that we need is to have faith in that promise. I encourage you to read the Bible so you can benefit from it and find comfort for you and your family. Here are some other Biblical verses that will definitely help you. If you would like, you are welcome to write me to the following address: Maria Isabel Perlloni,

“ I had the sincere pleasure of teaching Jose his senior year. What a wonderful young man! He was the type of student that we all wish we had more of, and he was the type of young man I hope my son grows up to be! This is a tremendous loss for us all! God bless you and keep you all during this difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you!
