“ I will always Remember Tony, because he was My First True Love. We met while he was a Surgeon at St. Joseph Hospital and we became Engaged. He then moved to Cook County Hospital, Chicago where I helped him move and decorate his apartment for the arrival of His Mother, Mrs. Robles and His Brother, Tito to meet me. Tony & myself continued to communicate, as well as maintain our relationship by commuting between Baltimore, MD and Chicago, IL., while planning our Wedding in the Philippines. Another trip was arranged for me to visit him in Chicago, at which time he told me that he had gotten married during his trip back to his home Country. We had a Wonderful 2 years, prior to his marriage and move to Houston, Texas. Tony was a Special Person and will always be Remembered. Prayers to His Family for GOD's Blessing of Comfort. May Tony Rest In Eternal Peace.
