“ Dear Kathy,

Joe put a smile on your face and a sparkle in your eyes. We know how much you loved and admired him and how his moving to Heaven has put a empty place in your heart.

Know that Joe has his glorified body! Amen! He is pain free and waiting to see you on the streets of gold where your love for one another will be again.

Be strong but, lean on your loved ones when you need the extra strength as we are all here for you.

Much love, Watty and Mich

“ James and John,
My prayers and condolences to you and the entire family on the death of your father. May the Lord fill the void that your father's death has left and may you support one another in your loss. I am sorry that I cannot get to the wake or funeral. I just buried my own father two weeks ago and so I know what you are going through. He is no longer suffering from the cancer but is now in the hands of God where he will no longer have to suffer. Keep your dad's memory alive by telling family stories over and over so the next generation will know what a good person he was.
