

Mr. Joseph Frank Mikulski

June 13, 1928 - February 19, 2012

Joseph F. Mikulski passed away on Sunday, February, 19, 2012. He was born on June 13, 1928 in Philadelphia, PA. to Joseph and Eve Mikulski. Joe spent his early years in Waterbury, CT. and later joined the U.S. Army and serving the Korean War. After his discharge he returned home and worked for the W.T. Grant Company. He was transferred around the country then eventually moving to Elmhurst, IL. where he met his wife Paula. They were subsequently married and moved here to Houston. In 1962, Joe opened and operated his own employment agency, Atlas Labor Services, Inc. and remained in business until his retirement in 2009. Joe and Paula enjoyed extensive travel throughout the U.S. and abroad. He was a gourmet cook, artist, golfer and a mean gin rummy player. He is survived by his wife, Paula; sister, Judy Katarskas and her husband Zen; nieces, Virginia Carson, Regina Gary, Ilona Mayer and their spouses and children. Joe will be sorely missed by his loving family and his many close friends. The family will be present to receive friends on Thursday evening, February 23, 2012 from 6:00pm until 8:00pm in the Chapel of D.M. Dettling Funeral Directors, 14094 Memorial Dr. 77079. A funeral Mass will be held on Friday, February 24, 2012 at 10:30am at St. John Vianney Catholic Church with Fr. R. Troy Gately, Celebrant, 625 Nottingham Oaks Trail, 77079. Interment will follow. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the charity of your choice.

“ Paula, our prayers are with you and your family. I have many great memories of Joe, and the "good old days" at the Chronicle, many golf outings, dinners. You name it, Joe was always there to help out with a smile and a can-do attitude. Jerry Harris, former Mail Room Manager, Houston Chronicle, retired in 2005 now living in the Dallas area.
