“ Dear Family and Friends:
You have my deepest sympathy.
Have you ever wondered can the dead really live again? Notice what the Bible says at Acts 24:15: "There is going to be a resurrection."
Also at John 5:28,29 we are reminded of the reunion that will take place of those sleeping in God's memory with family and friends. Can you imagine how happy Mary and Martha were when Jesus resurrected their brother, Lazarus? (John 11:11-34)
May these thoughts give you added encouragement to draw closer to the Giver of Life, Jehovah God (Ps. 83:18), and not let the lies of the Wicked One, Satan the Devil, make you think that bad things such as death is because "God needed another angel" or that "God took them".
If you have any questions, feel free to contact me or read the Bible online at www.jw.org/en. (Go to PUBLICATIONS>BIBLE)

“ Bob, Randy, Ron and Debrorah -- I am sorry to hear that Joyce has left us and as Bob said in his email -- she is in a better place as we all know. I have nothing but fond and great memories of the entire family as well as Joyce's kindness and graciousness which always surrounded her. What a wonderful lady! My most vivid memory of the "family" was when Bob and Joyce graciously opened up their new home to the younger staff of then Ernst and Ernst. Making it to the front porch, ringing the doorbell, opening the front door as it appeared no one heard the doorbell and there was Randy with the rake for the new shag carpet telling my wife and I not to walk on the carpet because he had just raked it AGAIN!! I think Joyce was close to killing him as she walked up behind him as he was giving us our marching orders.

She will be missed and Katherine and I will keep all in our in our prayers.

“ Some of my favorite childhood memories include Joyce and Bob ... and include being flower girls (me and Karen) in their wedding ... and when Joyce and Bob would take us cousins to drive-in movies - in a convertible ... then more were made when Karen and I spent time in Houston in our early teens with Joyce and Bob (and Deborah and Ronald and Randy). And, then when I was married several years later and you so kindly invited us to Houston after our first child, Michelle, was born ... so it continued through Joyce and Bob's visit to our Alaska home in 2008 and visiting with them last time we were in Houston when Bob let our grandson Jimmie admire his latest convertible. Precious, precious memories. So much love for Joyce ... and for Bob and the entire family. Your loving cousin, Louise
